NRA LAW ENFORCEMENT ACTIVITIES DIVISION

FIREARM INSTRUCTOR DEVELOPMENT SCHOOLS OVERVIEW

NRA Law Enforcement Firearm Instructor Development Schools develop and enhance both instructor skills and firearm handling skills of all students so they can effectively teach their officers to win lethal encounters. These schools are intended for public and private law enforcement officers and military personnel who are currently assigned, or about to be assigned, duties as law enforcement firearm instructors.

The curriculum is designed to prepare students to develop and conduct safe, effective, reality-based and agency-related firearm training. Classroom instruction and practical exercises on the range provide a model for students to use in building their own agency programs. In addition, the school will enhance each student's firearm knowledge and handling skills. All classes and range exercises are conducted at the instructor level, with students conducting many of the range exercises to gain experience. Students are exposed to a wide variety of shooting techniques, training methods, and tactical philosophies, which allows them to choose what best serves their students.

Each of our Instructor Development Schools consists of a minimum of forty-four (44) contact hours during a five (5) day school. “Contact hours” refers to actual instructional time in the classroom and on the range, and does not include travel time between the lodging and training site, meal times, or range clean-up. Classes will be conducted from approximately 0800 to 1800 hours, Monday through Friday, plus one late night, (two late nights in the Tactical Shooting Instructor), to accommodate reduced light shooting. 100% attendance and participation is MANDATORY for successful school completion. Students must demonstrate teaching and shooting proficiency and pass a written examination in all of the schools.

INSTRUCTOR SCHOOL DISCIPLINE

Tactical Shooting Instructor – This school combines the use of the law enforcement handgun with the long gun, either a patrol rifle, or a shotgun with a single projectile (slug). The school is geared towards bringing the “street to the range” training concept and teaches how to utilize both the handgun and a long gun in the law enforcement environment. Range work involves use of cover, various firing positions, pivots and turns, use of the “safety circle” concept, reloading under stress, firing on the move, multiple threats, unconventional shooting positions, reduced light training, (two nights worth), and more. We’ve taken our old Tactical Handgun discipline and incorporated a law enforcement long gun into the program.

Tuition – Tuition for each Instructor Development School is $525 per student, payable by check, credit card, or purchase order to the NRA prior to the school. In addition, the hosting agency may charge a “range fee” to cover cardboard, staples, coffee, snacks and other out-of-pocket expenses, payable directly to the host on site. Range fees vary from $25-$50.

Note: Tuition may be tax deductible for education expenses -U.S. Citizens: Treasury Regulation 1.162.5 permits an income tax deduction for educational expenses (registration fees, cost of travel, meals and lodging) undertaken to maintain or improve skills required for one's employment or other trade or business.

STUDENT PREREQUISITES

Students must first meet the eligibility requirements below before attending any of our schools. In addition, students must have a good working knowledge of the firearms used and the capability to safely and accurately operate them prior to attending any NRA school. Without this basic background, students will find it difficult to keep pace with the instruction, practical exercises, and successfully complete the proficiency assessments. Students who are not able to demonstrate proficiency in the operation of their firearms or who commit unsafe acts will be dropped from the school.

ADDITIONAL PREREQUISITES

Tactical Shooting – Officers must have successfully completed a law enforcement firearm instructor school that included “general methods of instruction” prior to attending these schools. Documentation of this fact will be required to be submitted with the student application. These are advanced tactical shooting schools, and are not to be considered basic shooting or methods of firearm instruction schools. The student should be proficient at handling and shooting his handgun AND long gun prior to attending.

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

Certain eligibility requirements must be met PRIOR to attending any NRA Law Enforcement Firearm Instructor school. Application to attend must be made on the proper forms to NRA headquarters and confirmation to attend received prior to arriving at schools. NRA Membership is NOT REQUIRED to attend any NRA Law Enforcement Firearm Instructor School. You must be:

1. A public law enforcement officer, vested with powers of arrest, required to carry a firearm in the furtherance of their duties, working for any federal, state, county or municipal agency having a minimum of 3 years of law enforcement related experience. These may include but are not limited to officers, deputy sheriffs, agents, investigators, troopers, park rangers, land & natural resource officers, animal wardens, tribal police, correctional officers, railroad police, etc...
2. A private law enforcement officer, licensed, authorized and required to carry a firearm in the furtherance of their duties working for a licensed security agency, company or corporation having a minimum of 3 years of law enforcement/security related experience. These may include but not be limited to private corrections, nuclear security, private investigators, bank and/or armored car guards, personal protection personnel, etc...
3. A retired or previously employed law enforcement officer who HAD arrest powers, has NO criminal convictions, may lawfully possess a firearm, has remained active in law enforcement training, and has a minimum of 3 years of law enforcement related experience.
4. A current member of the United States military, active duty or reserve, applying to attend under written orders from their command, or applying with a letter of request from the commanding officer or a senior NCO of their unit.

Any other individuals who believe they may qualify or have a specific articulated need for this training, but who do not meet the specific criteria listed above may make application to attend by submitting written documentation addressing their special circumstances. These applications will be considered on a case-by-case basis.

CERTIFICATION REQUIREMENTS

At the completion of all NRA Law Enforcement Firearm Instructor Schools, a course completion certificate shall be issued. Certification, good for 3-years, may be applied for immediately upon successful completion of each school and when the following requirements are met:

1. An Application for Certification must be completed and submitted to the NRA's Law Enforcement Activities Division within 12-months of the completion of school. (Certification is free if applied for within 30 days of completing their school. Thereafter it is $30.).
2. The person applying for certification must be an NRA member. (NRA membership must be maintained in order for the certification to remain valid). Law Enforcement personnel may apply for and receive NRA membership through an exclusive offer of only $20/year through the NRA's Law Enforcement Activities Division.
3. Agency membership enrollment for private security agencies is a pre-condition for all private security officers to certify with the NRA. Agency enrollment is $95/3-years and has its own unique benefits.
4. Agency enrollment is available for both public and private law enforcement agencies. Agency membership permits the agency to submit all firearm lesson plans and course of fire to the NRA's Law Enforcement Activities Division for review and approval. All lesson plans and courses of fire are kept confidential and on file at the NRA's Law Enforcement Activities Division for a period of 3 years.
